GRID PRACTICE FOR LOCAL MEN STARTS SEPT. 1

Forty High School Men Are Expected to Report for First Workout.

MANY VETERANS OUT
Season Schedule Includes
Best Teams of State;
Dates Incomplete.

Ada high school football men prepared Saturday morning to get back into the harness when a call for opening practice on the local gridiron September 1 was issued by Coach C. R. Cox.

The next two weeks will see veterans and prospective material for the local high squad dragging their old togs from the attic and cellar preparatory to diving into what promises to be one of the toughest schedules the Ada team has ever faced. An abundance of excellent material is coming up from the grades into high school this year and will bridge the gap left by the graduation of several Ada high school veterans last spring and build up good odds for an all-victorious machine this year, Coach Cox believes.

Six regulars of the high school squad last year were lost by graduation. They are Earl McKendree, captain and tackle, Guy Meaders, quarter and halfback, Mike Derrick, end, Tyree Derrick, halfback, Hubert Priest, end, and Truman Harrison, quarter. In addition to these, three other mainstays of last year's eleven will be cut because of ineligibility or other reasons. They are Leonard Ferris, Horace White and Russell Gattin. But Coach Cox will not be without old timber to use as a nucleus for a record breaking squad. Frank Potts, halfback, and Charles Cunningham, captain and fullback, are certain to be out with the first candidates to report September 1. Bill Crawford, fullback, also will be back but may be prevented from playing by old injuries last season. A big squad of new men, some of whom showed considerable scrimmage against the regulars last year, are ready to report. These include Turner King, Wilson Sadler, Paul Rayburn, Laran Malloy, Charles Gregg, Clyde Newton, Jimmie McCoy, Claude Smith, Vester Willoughby, Jess Carr, Ambers Nettles, Earl Choate and Irvin Choate.

Emmett Nettles, a husky freshman of this year, is also among the promising stuff. Fully 40 men are expected to suit up for the first practice, Coach Cox announced. Names given out today do not include all the valuable timber by any means, he declared. Because of the fact that Ada high school had a freshman football coach last season, the blow of several regulars' leaving, although it will be felt, will not be serious.

But Ada high will have her material tested to the limit in some of the fiercest grid battles promised in years, according to a tentative schedule that has been made up. Contracted games for the season, the dates of which are yet to be set, are with Sulphur, Purcell, McAlester, Holdenville, Okmulgee, Shawnee and Durant. Prospective games include Sapulpa, Norman and Henryetta. Chickasha made a desperate attempt to add Ada high school to her season's program but the game was not scheduled because Chickasha is an outlaw with the Oklahoma conference.

Miss Ada Veterans.
In speaking this morning on the outlook for the year Coach Cox said: "Our old men will be missed. But we expect to fill their jobs with young material which we believe can be developed into an excellent machine this year. We expect to feel our own weak spots before the first game and turn them into strong points."

"Ada high school will have as strong a gridiron aggregation this year as the support that backs it," A. L. Fentem, principal of the high school, said. "The football equipment for our men is incomplete and not the best in the world but the boys will give Ada their limit. The entire town ought to get solidly behind the team from now on and I'm sure we'll put it over."

BEEF PRICES FALLING TO PRE-WAR LEVELS

(By the Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Wholesale prices of dressed beef in the eastern market this week were down to within two cents of the pre-war prices of 1913. The price decline during the year having been nearly 45 per cent, according to figures published today by the American meat packers institute.

Do you have a lot for sale, a house, an automobile, a cow, horse or anything else that somebody else wants? The quickest, cheapest and most satisfactory way to dispose of this is by using a "for sale" ad in the Ada Evening News.

BLINDNESS NOT DISABLING FOR THIS VETERAN

(By the Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 19.—To Corporal Christen Poulsen of the United States Marines, his discharge from an army hospital in February, 1919, meant beginning life anew—the life of a blind man. In two years time, he has completed that readjustment and today Poulsen is in the fuel and feed business in Chicago, does a full day's work every day and, with the aid of his wife, is taking a correspondence course in business management.

Poulsen was with the Sixth Regiment of the Marines when a few thousand troops were chosen from the vanguard of the American army to help block the German advance on Paris in June, 1918. The Sixth Marines gave their aid to the allies, but among those who were left on the battlefield was Corporal Poulsen, fully conscious, but bleeding and sightless from the burst of a high explosive shell. Poulsen was wounded just one year to the day from the date he enlisted. He has been totally blind ever since.

AGREEMENT COMES ON RUSSIAN ISSUE

Terms for American Relief to Famine Area Signed Saturday.

(By the Associated Press.)
RIGA, Aug. 20.—The agreement between the United States and Russia providing for American relief for the famine stricken districts of Russia, was signed at 11:30 this morning by Walter Brown, European representative of the American relief administration, and Maxim Litvinoff, representative of the Russian famine committee.

Hope that the signing of the agreement would lead to further relations between Russia and America was expressed in speeches made by Litvinoff and the Latvian premier. Mr. Brown spoke only formal words of thanks and expressions of hope that the agreement would result in the saving of lives. Russia is, by the terms of the contract, made the beneficiary of a far reaching program which includes not only providing food for the people of the famine stricken Volga region, but the combating of epidemics. The task of preventing the outbreak of contagious diseases among the thousands who have fled from their homes is considered great. Cholera has appeared in various districts and there is in many places danger of an epidemic such as has in the past swept away myriads of lives and reached distant parts of the continent.

Actual work in Russia may possibly commence in little more than a week.

Books for Blind Are Sent Out From State Library Commission

(By the Associated Press.)
OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 20.—Books for the blind are being circulated extensively from the state library commission, according to Mrs. L. R. Dale, secretary of the state library commission.

One difficulty in the buying of the books for the blind, is the many systems of "languages" in which they are printed, Mrs. Dale said. This necessitates the buying of several different systems, often for the same book, she said, but the department has decided to buy nothing now but a revised system adopted recently at a meeting of national publishers of such books. "Heretofore," Mrs. Dale said, a blind man often had to learn to read in six or seven different "languages" in order to get any extensive reading course whatever. Nearly a score of calls for books printed in the revised system have been received by the commission, which superintends the state traveling libraries, Mrs. Dale said.

CORRECTION

In the article from the officers of the American Legion in Friday's Evening News, through an oversight of the proofreader, a sentence read, "In the first place no information of the war record of the deceased was not obtained until Thursday." The sentence should have read, "In the first place no information of the war record of the deceased was obtained until Thursday."

In the rush of getting the paper on the press on time, the proofreader overlooked the little word, "not," and let it slip through. We regret this error and hasten to correct it.

MYSTERY HANGS AROUND MURDER OF D. GINGRICH

Officers Get Little Clue on How Oklahoma City
Man Met Death.

BODY IS NOT CLAIMED
Tracks Leading to Lake
Give Slight Hint of Unusual Tragedy

(By the Associated Press.)
OKLAHOMA CITY, August 20.—Efforts to locate the slayer of Dan Gingrich, wealthy Oklahoma City hotel owner, whose body was found in an amusement garden lake Thursday, was continued today by city and county authorities. However little progress was made, but the authorities learned today that which indicates that they are working on clues which are more definite than any uncovered yesterday. They declined to reveal what course the investigation had taken.

A coroner's jury is to hold an inquest at 1:30 today. Among the witnesses summoned are Gingrich's widow whom he was suing for divorce and who had brought sensational counter charges against him. Other witnesses are M. D. Stevens, former roommate of the dead man; T. L. Irby, who found the body; C. G. Pickerns, manager of the park where the body was found persons connected with and alleged to own a "choc joint" near the lake, and residents of the hotel which Gingrich recently bought.

In a short statement made late yesterday to newspaper men in the office of his attorney, J. W. Burns, Mrs. Gingrich is said to have declared her husband had many bitter enemies. She declined to amplify her assertion, it is said. The authorities later stated that they had been able to learn of only two persons who were alleged to have made threats against Gingrich's life.

Mr. Burns stated last night that Mrs. Gingrich would not claim her husband's body. J. S. Estes, attorney for Gingrich and personal friend, said that the parents of the dead man's first wife in Iowa had been notified and are expected to come here to take the body there for interment. Gingrich's first wife was buried in that state, he said.

Forrest Hughes, county attorney, declared today that it was his belief that Gingrich was slain within 25 feet of the cove where the body was found. He declined to express the reason for his belief. Tracks were found yesterday leading to the lake. They were made by a man in rubber boots, the authorities said, and there had been clumsy efforts made to obscure them.

Mrs. Gingrich slept last night in an improvised suite in the offices of her attorney and refused to be seen. Chief S. Glitsch today sent two men to El Reno, where she has been living. He did not indicate what they sought.

So far, officers working on the case have been unable to assign a definite motive for the slaying.

POST OFFICE TO BE OPEN UNTIL 11 P. M.

Beginning Monday, August 22, the local postoffice will remain open until 11 o'clock at night instead of 9 o'clock according to an announcement made public Saturday morning by J. W. Westbrook, postmaster.

Speaking in connection with the announcement, Mr. Westbrook said: "This is for the convenience of those who have occasion to have access to their boxes and do a part of their correspondence at night. This is quite an advantage to the traveling public who get in after night and will allow all connections with the night trains to be made."

Scene of Fighting to Get Negro Held in Jail, Now Quiet

(By the Associated Press.)
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 20.—Quiet prevailed in the vicinity of the Knox county jail today following the clash last night between the guard of deputies and state troops and a crowd demanding a negro held in connection with a criminal assault on a county school teacher, in which 26 persons were injured, six of them seriously. An exchange of shots occurred when members of the crowd, composed of more than 200 men and boys crossed a "deadline" beyond which Sheriff Cagle had given warning they should not pass.

LAND OFFICIAL KIDNAPPED BY MEXICAN BAND

(By the Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Aug. 20.—Eric Clark, official of the international land and livestock company, has been kidnapped by Mexican bandits and is being held for ransom of $7500, according to work received here by H. E. Bullock, president of the company. According to advices received here Clark, who has been the company's representative in Mexico for a number of years, was kidnapped yesterday. His captors fled with him to the mountains. Officers of the company here have taken the matter up with the Washington authorities and the governor of Chihuahua has been notified and has ordered pursuit of the bandits, according to Mr. Bullock.

(By the Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Eric Clark, official of the international land and livestock company, has escaped from the Mexican bandits who kidnapped him at a ranch near Rio Crimero and is now safe in Jiminez, Chihuahua. Clark reported his kidnapping and escape today in a personal telegram to friends here. The bandits were holding him for $7500 release.

DELAY AGAIN SEEN FOR EXCISE BOARD

State Board Report on Public Service Corporations
Is Awaited.

The possibility of another delay in making out tax levies confronted the county excise board this morning when no report came from the state board of equalization in spite of an assurance last week that public service corporations and utilities in the county would be reported on by the state board about August 18.

Adjournment will be the only alternative for the county excise board when it meets Monday unless early mails bring some word from the state board. It is thought probable that valuation of public service utilities for this county may be passed upon at Oklahoma City today and in this event the county excise board, which expected to take action last Monday on the tax levy, will be able to complete this August 22 as it intended.

As yet no statement has been given out by county commissioners as to what lies in store for the city estimate. Trimming scissors will pass over the city's sheet, taking off the high spots, the total clipings to aggregate near $6000 at least to bring it within the six mills limit.

ANTI-BEER BILL MAY BE SETTLED

Volstead Takes Measure to Other Conferees for Adoption.

(By the Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—Definite agreement on the contested sections of the anti-beer bill was reached today by Senators Sterling and Nelson and Representative Volstead, and the report taken by Mr. Volstead for presentation to the other house conference. Both the Stanley senate amendments, designed to protect homes from indiscriminate search for liquor and the house substitute were rejected, part of each being retained in the final compromise which requires a warrant for search of homes but not for other property, including automobiles.

Mr. Volstead said he believed Representative Dyer, Missouri, and Sunners, Texas, the other house conferees, would sign the report.

ANTI-SPITTING DRIVE PLANNED FOR NEXT WEEK

City Officials to Attempt Clean-up for City in Campaign.

SCOUTS WILL ASSIST
Tobacco Spitter Nuisance Grows Rapidly With Unemployment.

An anti-spitting campaign, to follow practically the same general plan as the one conducted in Ada several months ago, will be waged next week and as much publicity as possible given the clean up campaign.

The nuisance caused by crowds of men who gather in groups on the streets and plaster the walks and curbs with tobacco juice has increased ten fold since unemployment has grown. Mayor Kitchens said. In spite of efforts of the city to keep the streets and walks clean, and in spite of the precautions taken by all local merchants to sweep their walks every day, some severe times a day, the city never looks at its best because of the tobacco spitting habit that continues unchecked, officers said.

Three months ago, Mayor Kitchens played his first big card in an effort to stop sidewalk spitting. With the assistance of Boy Scouts he distributed several hundred cards in a several days' campaign, to urge men to be more considerate. This plan probably will be repeated early next week and as much publicity as possible given the clean up campaign.

Cards bearing the words: "SAY, MISTER: 'The Mayor of Ada has asked us to help in the anti-spitting campaign. Spitting on sidewalks and in stairways is filthy; it endangers public health; it is a violation of the law.'"

"PLEASE DO NOT FORCE THE OFFICERS TO ARREST YOU. YOURS TRULY, 'BOY SCOUTS OF ADA.'"

We do not mean a personal affront to anybody and these cards will be given by the boys in the spirit of kindness and love for the beauty of their town to men actually seen spitting on the walks. I ask your hearty co-operation in this civic movement," Mayor Kitchens said.

FLOYD DRAGGED HALF MILE ACROSS FIELD

Denton Floyd, son of County Superintendent A. Floyd, was painfully injured Friday when he became entangled in a chain and was dragged almost half a mile by a frightened mule.

Floyd was working around a hay baling outfit in the Union Valley community when his foot became caught in the chain. At this juncture the animal became startled and raced across the field. The young man received skin and flesh injuries on the back and chest but is reported resting well today at his home, 1019 E. Eighth street.

He admits, however, that hope still exists.

(By the Associated Press.)

The bill will be sent Monday to the senate, where it will be referred to the finance committee for consideration during the forthcoming recess of congress.

OLD SPEED KING OF RAIL WORKS SLOW ROAD NOW

(By the Associated Press.)
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 20.—Pulling a slow local passenger train in Georgia is the "ten wheeler" which one day twenty years ago traveled at a greater speed than that of any steam locomotive ever built, 120 miles an hour.

This engine, now Atlantic Coast Line No. 210, was Plant System No. 111 when it set the world's record for sprinting. At the same time it won a United States mail contract between Washington, D. C., and Jacksonville, Fla.

The Seaboard Air Line and the Atlantic Coast Line Plant System in March, 1901, were conducting tests under observation of postal authorities. Each road, it was agreed, should run three trains to determine which could handle the Florida and Cuban mail the quicker. It was while pulling the third test train between Savannah and that No. 111 of the Savannah Florida and Western, just delivered to the railroad by her builders and still stiff from lack of use, unexpectedly set its record that still stands.

BENNETT HEARING TO BE NEXT WEEK

Boy Noncommittal Friday
as Justice Sets Date for Preliminary.

Lloyd Bennett, alleged slayer of "Mexican Bill" Costello in Glenwood park here Sunday night, will go on trial charged with murder before he is 18 years old. Although Bennett has dropped no statement, even as to his age, since he was placed in the county jail Sunday night, officers said they were informed that he was only 17.

Bennett was brought before Justice of the Peace H. J. Brown Friday and the date of his preliminary hearing set for Thursday, August 25. He refrained from talking. Speculation as to what Bennett's defense will be when he is brought into the court room next week ran high at the court house Saturday. So far, nothing that would hint of a clue as to the motive for the alleged murder has been brought to light even after the statements of eye witnesses to the shooting have been taken. The boy will be represented at his hearing by John Crawford, of the law firm of King and Crawford. The counsel for the defense also is closely reserving his statements concerning the shooting.

Thursday's preliminary promises extraordinary interest as a murder hearing. "Mexican Bill" Costello, laborer, probably will not have a relative, even a distant kinsman, in the court room when investigation of his death is being made. Although little is known of Bennett's family, it is said that his father is dead and that the boy has worked at various places about the city, following no particular line. He has been employed recently at a local restaurant, it is understood.

AN AMERICAN'S CREED

Compiled by CHARLES W. MILLER
Vicksburg (Miss.) Herald

Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.—(Ex. xx: 12). Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is well pleasing unto the Lord. Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.—(Col. iii: 20, 21). A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favour rather than silver and gold. Train up a child in the way he should go; and when he is old, he will not depart from it.—(Prov. xxii: 1, 6). The rod and the reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame. Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest: yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul.—(Prov. xix: 15, 17). Whoso robeth his father or his mother, and saith, it is no transgression: the same is the companion of a destroyer.—(Prov. xxvii: 24). Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousnes is righteous, even as He is righteous. He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that He might destroy the works of the devil.—(1 John iii: 7, 8).

BURCH MAY BE OWNER
Discovery Thought to be an Important Clue to Broker's Death.

(By the Associated Press.)
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 20.—The authorities investigating the mysterious slaying of J. Belton Kennedy, broker, will be informed thru a story printed in this morning's Examiner of the discovery of a gunsmith, Arthur C. King, and his story that a week before the killing of the broker, he repaired an old fashioned double-barreled shotgun stock for a young and apparently "well to do" customer.

It is an old fashioned shotgun stock minus the two barrels which the district attorney's office has been holding for several days as one of the most important phases of the case. It was turned over to the authorities by a beach camper near Santa Monica, who said he found it August 6, washed on the sand by the waves. The barrels were never recovered.

King, who was found by a reporter from the Examiner, operates a basement shop in an old section of the city. When shown the photograph of the gun stock held by the investigators, he brought out a repair tag showing that workers in the shop had repaired such a gun as the gun in question, July 27. King says that only the stock of the gun, wrapped in a newspaper, was brought to the place. The young man who brought it, he said, gave the name of Barton without the initials. He said he thought it odd but said he could not positively identify Arthur C. Burch from a photograph as the man who had the stock repaired. Burch, with Mrs. Madelynn Burch, is held under a charge of murdering Kennedy. The newspaper says it expects that King will be given an opportunity this morning to see Burch in the county jail in an attempt to identify him as the repair man's customer.

FORD'S RAILROADING

When Henry Ford took over the controlling interest of the Detroit, Toledo and Ironton Railroad, the industrial world said he had at last attacked a job that he could not do. The railroad was often spoken of as a streak of rust, running from southern Ohio to the neighborhood of Detroit. The road seemingly had avoided all the large cities. The operating expense of the road for the year preceding the Ford purchase had been approximately 50 percent more than the receipts. Receivership after receivership had failed to do any good.

The road is a bit more than 400 miles long, had at the time of purchase 70 locomotives, 27 passenger train cars and 2,800 freight cars.

In only a few months, Ford turned the defunct railroad into a paying property, is fast rebuilding the rundown equipment and is running the trains, both freight and passenger, on time. Freight consigned to the D. T. & I. railroad is delivered in record time. Passengers have to be at the stations on the scheduled time if they expect to make a train. Instead of losing fifty percent more money than the income, the operations now cost only a bit more than half the revenue, and thus there is a goodly profit on the investment.

What is the secret of Ford's success with the railroad? From a cursory study of his methods, we reach the conclusion that it is due to the following causes:

First: He bought the property for almost nothing. His investment was in no wise comparable to the amount most railroad securities bring. This means, however, that a profit at all would mean a greater earning on the investment and not mean that earning is less difficult. In other words, the price he paid for the property would have nothing to do with his turning a losing proposition into a winning one.

Second: He saw possibilities others had overlooked. Although other railroad men had overlooked the real need of such a line, Ford saw it. The road crosses most of the great east and west roads. By connecting with the Chesapeake & Ohio and thus with the Carolina, Clinchfield and Ohio, it taps the coal fields of West Virginia and Kentucky, thereby becoming one of the main outlets for coal to the northern cities and middle western roads. This makes it possible for the road to become the main line for transporting the steel products of the Pittsburgh district into Michigan and the return of the products of the northern Ohio and the Michigan cities. These things Mr. Ford is gradually accomplishing.

Third: He uses common sense instead of useless and expensive rules. For example, an electrician is expected to keep busy the eight hours, whether he is working at his trade or cleaning cars or something else. If a person can work in his line, well and good, but he is not permitted to work one or two hours a day, as some of the other railroads are reported to do. Equipment is kept busy the same way.

Fourth: He has no unnecessary help. The number of employees was cut from 2,700 to 1,400, later raising the number to 1,650. Many of the old railroad men, who had become set in their way, were let go, and their places filled with men out of the Ford Motor company's offices, men who had been accustomed to work and keep others working. At the same time he cut the number of employees, he raised the wages of the others. In other words, he insists upon a day's work and is willing to pay more than the average to get that work done.

Fifth: He goes after the business and delivers it when he gets it. He voluntarily cut the freight rates 20 percent, this being made possible by the enormous cut in operating costs. By giving service and lower rates, he naturally gets more business.

Ford is demonstrating what can be done when business methods are applied to railroading. Instead of spending $100 to win five cents as some roads insist upon doing, he loses the five cents. His legal expense was a bit more than $200 in June against more than $17,000 for the corresponding month last year.

Ford may be a crank and have fool ideas, but there has never been a man who did things and did not have some fool ideas. He is showing the railroad world new tricks, and other railroad executives would do well to pattern after him.

AGE AND ACHIEVEMENT

Cato learned Greek at eighty. Sophocles wrote his living Oedipus when four score years had passed him by. Chaucer was sixty when he wrote the Canterbury tales.

There are some 100 or more other examples to prove that age isn't an indication of achievement or lack of it.

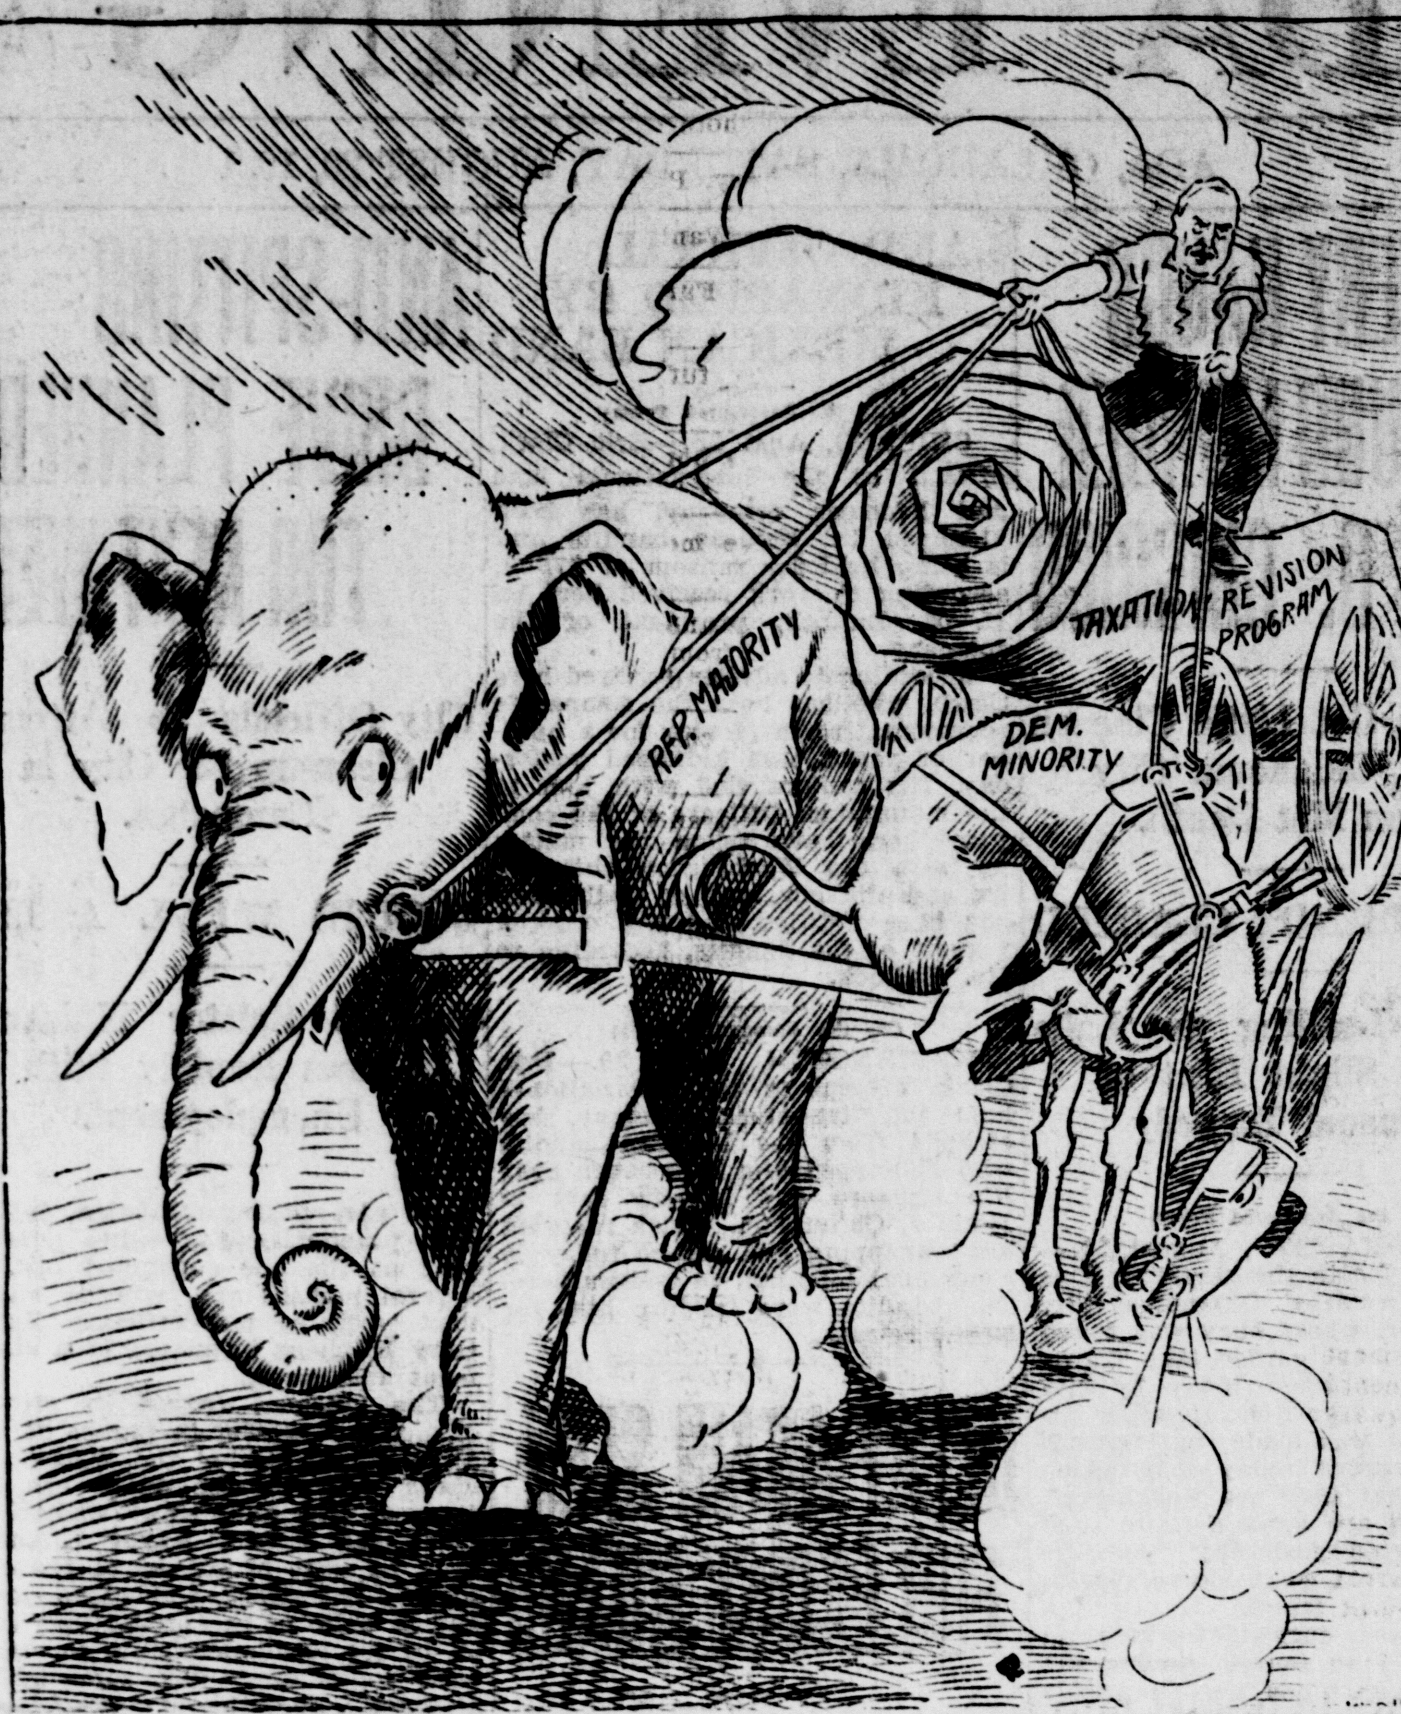

One of the old philosophers declared that he had no respect for an old man, unless he was a wise old man.

Brawn gives way before time, but the brain keeps on building up—if exercised.

From Island of Guam to Chair in College Is Professor's Jump

(By the Associated Press.)
 STILLWATER, Aug. 20.—From the Island of Guam to the newly created position of extension agronomist at the Oklahoma A. and M. college here is the move made this year by W. J. Green, formerly of the extension division staff of the college, but who for the past two years has been in charge of boys' agricultural club work on the Island of Guam.

Green will start his new duties about September 1, according to W. A. Conner, director of agronomy who today made the announcement of Green's return to the school.

The extension agronomist will aid county demonstration agents with problems of soil and seed selection, Conner said. His chief duty, it was explained, will probably be the assembling of seed developed on the government experiment station here, and getting these various seeds adopted by Oklahoma farmers, for their use.

What Does the Weather Man Say?

If it's rain—better take along an Umbrella. And isn't it joy to have one you are really proud to carry? Time was when utility was their sole object. In contrast, Umbrellas such as these in the new Fall assortments add a note of style to a costume, all by themselves. Some uncommonly swagger ones of the stocky English type, just in.

STEEDMAN FAMILY HAS SIX DOWN WITH FEVER

A distress call has been received by the local chapter of the Red Cross Saturday from a Steedman family. It is reported that in the one family there are six cases of typhoid fever now being treated.

The report stated that the mother was not expected to live while the five children were in a dangerous condition. The father was the only member of the family not affected by the fever, it is said. This is the only typhoid fever reported in this part of the county.

CHIEF JUSTICE SEES BIG CHANGE

Judge Harrison Things Citizens Will Demand Democratic Return.

Chief Justice Harrison, who with Mrs. Harrison are in Ada from Oklahoma City visiting Judge and Mrs. C. A. Galbraith, is today shaking hands with his many friends here. This is the first extended trip he has made to Ada, on former occasions having been rushed to make trains. While he is here, Judge Galbraith is showing him the city and surrounding country.

Judge Harrison talks freely of the political outlook for 1922. He says he thinks the people will have enough of the change in another year and will be glad to restore the state particularly to the entire control of the democrats. He is of the opinion that a good man as a democratic nominee for governor will have no difficulty in sweeping the state.

The judge is delighted with Ada and hopes to come back often. He and Judge Galbraith were on the supreme court bench together and are strong personal friends.

COUNTY AGENTS LEAVE TUESDAY TO BE AT MEET

Mrs. Alva Duvall, county home demonstration agent, and J. B. Hill, county farm agent, will leave Tuesday for Stillwater where they will spend ten days attending the Farm Congress, an annual school for those interested in the farm, given under the auspices of the Oklahoma A. and M. College.

They will be unable to look after business in the county while away but will be glad to meet club members immediately after their return. Plans are being made to begin the collection of exhibits for township fairs, and this will probably be the chief work for them when they return.

Mrs. Duvall stated today that she was highly pleased with the progress being made by the girl club members under her supervision. Canning, cooking, sewing and poultry are the clubs she has in charge.

LOOK, HORSESHOE PITCHERS, HERE IS YOUR CHANCE

(By the Associated Press)
TULSA, Aug. 20.—Horseshoe pitchers attention!
Eastern Oklahoma adepts in the art of heaving equine footwear are to be given an opportunity to participate in the first public horseshoe pitching tournament to be staged in this state in years.

Under the auspices of the Tulsa Tribune, horseshoe pitchers from all sections of the east side are to gather here to determine the championship of eastern Oklahoma and while the tournament has been planned primarily for artists of the east side, any Oklahoman will be eligible.

Adult participants will pitch on 40-foot courts while the participants in the juvenile division will heave on 30 foot courts.

Two divisions, adult and juvenile have been decided upon to permit old and young to enter the tournament and compete for suitable prizes that will be given by the Tribune and by Tulsa merchants.

The courts will be installed in the very heart of the up town district and will be placed in tip top shape for the tournament that is expected to be the most successful event of its kind attempted in the southwest.

Applications for entry should be mailed to the Horseshoe Tournament Editor, The Tulsa Tribune, Tulsa, Okla.

There will be no entry fee.

ALLIED FUNDING BILL REPORTED FAVORABLE

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The administration allied debt funding bill was favorably reported to the senate today by Chairman Penrose of the finance committee. Senator La Follette, republican of Wisconsin submitted a minority report.

An amendment requiring the fund to be completed within five years was added by the committee majority.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 20.—The majority report said the funding bill granting wide powers to secretary of the treasury in the funding operations affords the "best and most perspicacious method of handling the matter."

A majority of the committee agreed with Secretary Mellon, the report states, that "in case of the principal foreign governments receiving advances from the proceeds of Liberty Bonds the United States is committed to a postponement of interest for two or three years, (over two years of which have elapsed), and also to the spreading over subsequent years of payment of the postponed interest installments and not to charge interest on postponed interest at least during the two or three year period.

TULSA GRIDDERS MEET ADA TEAM AS YEAR OPENS

TULSA, Aug. 20.—(Special)—Will the University of Tulsa sustain the record this fall in football that its predecessor, Henry Kendall college, has set for it? That is the question that is being asked over and over by friends of the Presbyterian school. It will be remembered that Kendall had a title to championship last fall but for its tie with Phillips U in a 0-0 game. At that her supporters say she won a championship as she was not defeated during the entire season. Furthermore only 21 points were scored against the Kendall Tigers whereas she made 622 points against her opponents. Moreover, the Presbyterians have lost only one game during the four years that they have been coached by Francis Schmidt.

Captain-Elect Harry Brian hopes to lead the Tigers to another State championship. Coach Schmidt will be back again this year and expects to have eleven of last year's letter men return as a nucleus around which to start off a strong eleven. Brian was chosen all-state half last year and did most of the passing and punting. He is one of the cleverest broken field runners in the state and set a record last year of four touchdowns from kickoff.

Heavy Schedule Ready
The 1921 schedule includes every strong team in the conference except the Aggies, who will be on the next year's schedule. Central Normal, who were only beaten 3 to 0 last year, will be played at Tulsa on November 11, Homecoming Day. "Tubby" McIntire's Phillips Haymakers will furnish the combat for Thanksgiving Day at Tulsa. Two good stiff games away from home will be the Texas Christian University at Fort Worth, October 21 and the Haskell Indians at Kansas City, Missouri, on October 29. East Central State Normal is scheduled for the first game of the season on October 1, to be played at Tulsa.

With the increased enrollment many new players will be found working in the line-up. Coach Schmidt has received communications from a number of new men whose record in high school has been such that he predicts the fight for positions on the Varsity will be harder than ever before.
